PEER REVIEWER _____
WRITER _____

PEER REVIEW- EXERCISE 1, ESSAY 1 (Use back, if needed)

Your review should provide thoughtful feedback to a writer on:

- *the connection of the exercise with the assignment theme: social and ethical values- either a general “coming to consciousness/awareness” or “ethics in action” (moral decision or action)
- *the richness, power and potential of the experience;
- *interest for a readership (specific or general).

---

WRITE IN “BULLET POINTS”

1. What is most powerful about this exercise? How well does the exercise connect with the assignment theme of developing or expressing your moral and ethical values?

2. Would the first paragraph work well as an introduction to this essay? Why? Why not?

3. Suggestions for developing the exercise into an essay narrative.

Issues to consider include: where to begin, how much detail (e.g. character, setting) to provide, whether to include more backstory or dialogue, development of character, voice/tone in addressing readers.

4. (Comment on part 2): Why would this essay be interesting to a readership? Do you agree with the writer’s thoughts about audience? Why? Why not?
