

Class One- Intermediate Level

Disagreeing- "Birthday Blues"

- A: You have to work at the club tomorrow.
- B: That's out of the question. I already have plans.
- A: I'm sorry, but Sammy quit and we need you.
- B: But it's my birthday.
- A: Maybe just for a few hours?
- B: Well, alright.

*Grammar point:

Auxiliary verbs: have to

Should, ought to, need to, have to, must

*English Expression: (disagreeing)

That's out of the question.

Similar expressions: No way. I can't do that. I won't do that.

*But- transition

Similar words: yet, however, in contrast