

Coordination and Subordination; Writing Interesting Sentences

At the turn of the millennium, the Dalai Lama had a few things to say.

Finish his sentences:

1. When you realize you've made a mistake,
2. Open your arms to change, but
3. When you lose,
4. Learn that rules so

Several years ago this letter of advice went around the Internet. It was attributed to several famous people, but was in fact written by Chicago Tribune columnist Mary Schmich.

Finish her sentences:

1. Live in New York City once, but
2. Live in Northern California once, but
3. Dance, even if
4. Don't mess too much with your hair, or
5. Work hard to bridge the gaps in geography and lifestyle, because